ABOUT ALDEL EDUCATION TRUST : Aldel Education Trust is a Christian Religious Minority Trust established in the year 2007, with the objective of providing professional knowledge, developing expertise and enhancing the creativity of youth.

Mr. Albert W. D'Souza, the Founder – Chairman, is a visionary, philanthropist and a renowned industrialist. He has been the recipient of 'Entrepreneur of the Year' Award and today heads an internationally reputed printing and publishing firm.

The St. John Technical and Education Campus, run under the aegis of Aldel Education Trust, today stands testimony to the vision and dream of our Founder, Mr. Albert W. D'Souza, to develop the youth of our Society by providing them with specialized professional education. He has been involved in this movement by actively participating and supporting the development of several Minority Technical Institutes run by the Christian Religious Community in the Country. He is an active member of the Governing Council of all these Institutions. His intense foresight in the field of education has created excellent opportunities for the students, enabling them to seek promising careers.

With its vision of 'Excellence in Serving to Educate and Educating to Serve', Aldel Education Trust began its mission with the establishment of the Engineering and Pharmacy colleges in 2008 and gradually spread its wings to encompass various Institutes offering courses in Management, Polytechnic, Pharmacy Diploma, Hotel Management, Humanities & Sciences, International CBSE School and a Junior College from the Academic Year 2016-17.
